

Terms & Conditions

PLEASE ENSURE YOU READ AND CONSIDER THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING IT

PLEASE ASK THE PERSON REQUESTING YOU TO SIGN THIS DOCUMENT TO EXPLAIN ANY OF ITS TERMS SHOULD YOU NOT UNDERSTAND THEM

1. Whilst the organizers will take all reasonable steps to ensure your safety during your participation in the Imbube Marathon and any events relating to it, your participation in the events will be at your own risk.
2. This means that if you agree to enter the Imbube Marathon and participate in any related events, you will do so on the basis that if you suffer any injury, harm or any loss whilst participating you will have no claim against ENPF or any of the event organisers. You will be responsible to pay for any harm or losses you suffer. Please ensure that you have read and considered this document carefully before signing below.
3. Participants in the Imbube marathon are fully aware of and understand the full risks involved in their participation in the race, in regards to possible damages, or harm to their health.
4. Every runner participates in the event at his/her own free will. Every runner participates in the event on his/her own responsibility and bears full responsibility as to his/her fitness condition and ability to participate.
5. The ENPF and the Organizing Committee of the event carry no responsibility in case of injury, damage, or any other harm that may be caused by participating, or spectating the event.
6. Only runners that have duly, officially and in time registered for the event can participate in the Imbube Marathon races.
7. Participants are obligated to bear the race bib that they were given by the Organizing Committee of the event, on the front of their chest. In any other case, it is possible that they are disqualified from the race.
8. All participants must respect and follow the regulations of the event, before, during, and after the race.
9. The Imbube Marathon event takes place the day and time that has been announced as such, regardless of weather conditions. Only in cases of exceptional circumstances or other force majeure incident, ENPF and the Organizing Committee of the event have the right to decide on the postponement of the start time or the cancellation of the event, depending on the current conditions. In such cases, the registration fee is NOT refunded to the registered runners.
10. ENPF and the Organizing Committee of the event have the right to change the event's schedule, the terms and conditions regarding participation and staging of the event, without prior notice, by posting such a decision on the website of ENPF or of the event.
11. The personal data declared by the participant upon submission of entry form are true and correct. In case the entry form is submitted by a third party, it is granted that the participant consents to his/her personal data being given to ENPF and to the Organizing Committee of the event by the third party.
12. Participants agree that their personal data are given to third parties for reasons related to timing, results' ranking and announcement on the internet. Personal data of the participants required during the registration procedure are stored and will be used for purposes only related to the staging of the event. By submitting an entry form, each participant consents to the storing of his/her personal data and its use for the purposes of the event.
13. Participants consent to their personal data being given to the Insurance Company with which ENPF cooperates in the framework of the event's staging, for purposes related to the insurance of participants in case of accident during the event.
14. Participants consent to the use of their image during the race by the organizers, sponsors, or other partners of the event for promotional purposes, with no right to claim full or partial compensation for that reason.
